

HARNEY CO.

BICYCLES AUTOMOBILES

Gun Supplies Expert Repairing

LOCAL NEWS.

Regular 60c and 70c plates now 47c at A. Hottewitz's.

Miss Reecle Brelsford visited in Larned the past week.

A full line of fresh nuts and fruits always on hand at Meno's.

Frank Ketelson expects to make a trip to St. Louis next week.

A car load of rock salt for stock just received.—A. Hottewitz.

Mrs. John Donnell and family have moved into the old Vandivert house.

"Man can not live by bread alone." Call and get a full meal at the Kinsley House.

If you want to insure your farm buildings call on W. H. Israel, at Lewis, Kansas.

You can get the finest ice cream in the city at Keener's, either by the dish or gallon.

For wall paper, paints, varnishes, brushes and window glass, go to the C. O. Wilson Paint Co.

A. Hottewitz is holding a reduction sale and is offering flattering inducements in the way of prices.

Sheriff McCoy, of Larned, was in this place last Saturday eyeing several of our citizens with suspicion.

Ice cream, ices and cake tonight on the Congregational lawn. Come and help the Christian Endeavor library.

Miss Margaret Beezley went to Pittsburg, Kansas, Wednesday. She will visit there with friends for several weeks.

Mrs. A. C. Fisher is very sick and Miss Mildred Andrews is taking care of her, with the assistance of some of the neighbors.

W. H. Israel will insure your farm buildings in the old reliable Farmers' Alliance company. Call on him at Lewis, Kansas.

Miss Bessie Boyer went to Winfield Wednesday. She will visit the Switzer family there a few weeks and then go to the World's Fair.

Will Stach went to Colorado Saturday night. He will spend a month in the mountains and then probably return to Verdon, Nebraska.

Earnest, the three-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wells, who live northeast of Lewis, died last Monday and was buried the following day in the Lewis cemetery.

For books, stationery, tablets, school supplies, wedding or birthday presents see the DeTar Drug Co. Prescriptions carefully compounded by a registered pharmacist.

Little Miss Margaret Strong fell down stairs Monday and suffered an unusually large number of bumps and bruises. She is not seriously injured and will be all right again in a few days.

The report has been circulated that we are out of White Pine and cannot fill bills. This is wrong, as we are fully stocked and can sell at lower prices than any of our competitors.—R. D. Heath & Sons.

Mrs. Humphrey, of Pueblo, Mrs. W. D. Erwin's mother, who has been very sick for some time, is making a good recovery, much to the surprise of her doctor and friends, who thought it extremely doubtful if she would get up again, owing to her age.

We will have a very large stock of groceries, etc., for the harvest trade and solicit your patronage. Will fill all orders completely without delay and at as low prices as good goods can be sold for. Bring us your order; will duplicate prices of any firm in Kinsley and beat Chicago or Kansas City prices when freight and other expenses are added.—M. Schnatterly's Mercantile House, North Side of Railroad Track.

FOR SALE BY—
Edwards, Noble & Co.

Do They Fit?

You may have glasses that fit the eyes but do not fit the face.

We see that they are right for both.

The eyes, of course, are of the most importance, but the face should not be neglected. We make seeing easier, but don't spoil your appearance in doing it.

Leonard Jewelry Co.,

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS.

Mrs. Hoover returned from Pueblo last Friday.

Money to loan on real estate. Call on T. H. Evans & Co.

Miss Hern, of St. John, is visiting Miss Wave Shaffer.

Prices lower than ever before on all goods at A. Hottewitz's.

A car load of rock salt for stock just received.—A. Hottewitz.

Charley Hetzel's fine was paid Wednesday and he was released from jail.

St. Louis and return, $19.90—Santa Fe—good for 15 days; $22.10 for 60 days.

Harvest is coming. Get your shirts, overalls, gloves and underwear at W. C. Keener's.

Just received a car load of furniture. Highest in quality; lowest in price.—Cole & Wilson.

C. A. Mosher went to Topeka last evening to attend a meeting of the republican state committee.

A. Hottewitz is holding a special ten days' sale in all departments and is offering some rare bargains.

Mr. and Mrs. Timmerman and daughter arrived from Ohio Saturday of last week and are visiting with F. D. West.

J. A. Edgerton, who formerly lived northwest of Lewis, returned to this county last week to look after business matters.

R. G. Harvey was limping around town yesterday owing to a too intimate acquaintance with the business end of a horse.

Dr. Pearson can be found at his office, one door east of Hottewitz's store, or at his residence, one block east of the M. E. church.

F. B. Hine is expected home tomorrow night. If his son Charles has not gone to Michigan to see his mother he will come home with his father.

The Christian Endeavor Society met at Rev. Strong's Monday night and elected Augusta Hottewitz, president; Flossie Erwin, vice president; Donna Bingham, treasurer, and Lola Morse, secretary.

"The Evangelism of Today" will be the subject for consideration next Sunday morning at the Congregational church. In the evening, service will be held on the lawn. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. John Fox returned from Denver Sunday morning. She went to Colorado about six weeks ago on account of ill health and her many friends will be pleased to know she is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss, of Spearville, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Will Pierce on Wednesday of this week. They were on their way to St. John to attend the funeral of a friend who had been killed by lightning.

J. B. Donnell expects to move into the house he recently purchased from his father the first of next week and then H. V. Alexander will move into the house vacated by Mr. Donnell as soon as it can be made ready.

Harper Andrews and wife left for Topeka Monday morning. They will visit the Andrews boys there for a week and then Mrs. Andrews will return to this city and stay until about the first of August, joining her husband at Bucklin about that time.

Frank Ketelson says that he has often heard of the man who was so undecided on which of two stools to sit down that he fell to the ground between the two, but that he is in even a worse case for he is hesitating and undecided as to which of three to occupy.

I have purchased the agency for the Shaw-Bunker sash fastener for Kinsley and surrounding territory and will say that in all my experience of twenty-two years as a builder, it is the only fastener that I can fully endorse. Come in and let me show it to you.—W. C. Myers, Agent, Kinsley, Kansas.

Artistic Jewelry

A large line of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware at Schnatterly's Jewelry and Stationery Store. It will be worth your time to get my prices on these goods. Watch, Clock and Jewelry repairing.

H. M. Schnatterly

Miss Genevieve Wells is working in Clark Bros.' book store.

See the 4c and 5c wash goods—special sale at A. Hottewitz's.

A car load of rock salt for stock just received.—A. Hottewitz.

John Peterson expects to leave next Monday for his home in Hart, Mich.

Mrs. DeTar and daughter Lucile returned from LaCrosse last Sunday noon.

A four-piece etched glass set marked $1.45, special sale 95c.—A. Hottewitz.

Claude Reeder is working for M. D. Gonder. He spent Sunday in Hutchinson.

T. H. EVANS is a Bonded Abstractor and Ex-Register of Deeds for Edwards County.

Wanted—Stock, to pasture, plenty of grass and good water. Inquire of J. J. Cocker.

Our stock of lumber is complete. Let us figure on your bills.—R. D. Heath & Sons.

Try the best high patent flour on the market, "Our Banner." For sale by Fravel & Lewis.

Miss Eva Paris, of Larned, and Miss Gottle Jackson, of Lewis, were Kinsley visitors Wednesday.

If you want to buy or sell country or city property, call and consult us.—T. H. EVANS & CO.

Mrs. Beezley and son William went to Kansas City Wednesday morning. They will return the first of next week.

St. Louis and return via the Santa Fe, $11.85. Tickets on sale Mondays during July. Limited to seven days.

Wheat was off this week and yesterday the Farmers and Mr. Tubbs quoted a price of 75 cents for 60-pound new wheat.

Why look so lank and lean when you can change your looks by eating at the Kinsley House?—T. A. Harper's residence.

Max Hirdler's house has been rented by the Santa Fe engineer on the short line local who has his Sunday lay-over at this point.

R. H. Pine, who lives near Nettleton, was kicked on the leg by a horse last Saturday and quite badly hurt. He is getting along nicely.

Keep peace in the family. Get the madam that piano, that organ, that sewing machine, that piece of furniture. For sale at Cole & Wilson's.

Clifford Shaw, who is suffering from the kick of a horse by which his skull was fractured, is rapidly recovering. He is still at his uncle's, G. L. Mathews, where the accident occurred.

The two colored men who were in jail charged with running off a team from Mr. Greenstreet, had a preliminary hearing Monday and the case against them was dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

John Wallis says that he has already given up his claim in Gray county so that should he conclude to enter the race for the nomination for sheriff there can be no question but that he is a resident of this county.

Hugo Elsner, John Green and Cle Harney expect to start for the St. Louis fair Sunday evening. They will put in a week at the fair and Hugo will also spend a few weeks at his home in Missouri before returning.

Mrs. Max Hirdler and daughters and Miss Kreibing went to Garfield Wednesday night and Mr. Hirdler went to Great Bend yesterday morning. His family will join him after spending a week or two in Garfield with Mrs. Hirdler's parents.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barber Friday night of last week. His arrival was very timely as they had just finished harvesting and Mr. Barber's mother, who had been visiting him, was called home to Illinois by a telegram on account of sickness in her family and was compelled to go Sunday morning.

B. F. Hanna is evidently inspired with a laudable desire to make the thought of dying as pleasant as possible and so has bought a handsome hearse, which arrived the first of the week, and has been added to the attractions of his livery business. There will doubtless be quite a rivalry between the sick and ailing as to who shall first ride in this new conveyance. We will cheerfully give way to some one else in this matter as we prefer walking.

CLEARANCE SALE

JULY AND AUGUST.

Ready-to-Wear and Trimmed Hats, Baby Hoods, Trimming, and Sofa Cushion Covers. Call and see them.

MILLINERY BAZAR

See the special bargains at A. Hottewitz's—only ten days.

A car load of rock salt for stock just received.—A. Hottewitz.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bailey, of Trenton, Sunday.

Mrs. Edwards is entertaining a camping party on the river this week.

Try the celebrated McPherson flour "Our Banner." For sale by Fravel & Lewis.

For paints, oils and the latest designs in wall papers, call on the DeTar Drug Co.

Mother and babes made happy by getting a sleeping coach or folding go-cart of Cole & Wilson.

John Dornin and Charley Maxey have moved into their pretty, new, twin cottages on Marsh avenue.

If you want fresh candies, fruits, tobaccos or groceries, remember that they are to be had at Keener's.

Come tonight to the Christian Endeavor library benefit on the Congregational lawn. Ice cream, ices and cake.

The Kansas Grain company is making arrangements to build an elevator at Bellefont, the next station west of Offerle.

The display of ladies' oxfords at A. Hottewitz's and the prices they are offering them for speaks well for their special sale.

Ed Finch returned last Sunday from his visit in the eastern part of this state. He has taken up fraternal insurance work.

The missionary society will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. James Wade. All are cordially invited.

Preaching services at the Providence church on Sunday, July 24, at 4 p.m.; also at 8 p.m. at Prattburg Woodman Hall.—J. C. WAMKINS, Pastor.

The Shaw-Bunker sash fastener is the only absolutely dust and rattle proof fastener on the market. Come in and see it.—W. C. Myers, Agent, Kinsley, Kans.

Miss E. V. O. Johnson, a colored lady from Boston, Mass., will deliver a lecture in the court house in this place tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. You are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. C. Burton and children, of Independence, Kansas, who have been visiting Dr. Hestis and wife at Lewis for several weeks, drove in here Monday morning and took the train for home.

It will soon be time to clean house. Come to us for your wants—new carpets, wall paper, carpet paper, picture frames, a new rocker or a hundred and one other things.—Cole & Wilson.

A recent letter from Mr. Chester Jones, of Waterbury, Connecticut, says that his daughter, Grace, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, is very low and it is feared she cannot recover.

C. H. Falk has just completed a fine new barn on his farm. His son John and Frank Bishop have taken advantage of the fact to invite the young people of the neighborhood there for a dance this evening.

"Say, Bill, how does it come that H. B. Oliphant & Son do the most business in town?"

"Jack, you're foolish. You might know it because they have the best line of implements in town and sell them at reasonable prices."

FOR SALE BY—
Edwards, Noble & Co.

Harvest Supplies

It takes a good deal of grub to feed a harvest crew. If you are not careful where you buy your groceries you'll think your men eat too much.

Let us figure with you on your harvest and threshing orders. We guarantee everything we sell.

CLARK BROS.

W. C. MYERS, Contractor and Builder.

Office and Shop Opposite Marsh Ave. Hotel, KINSLEY, KANSAS.

Beau Darling
NO. 135569

FRED MATHEWS & SONS,

BREEDERS OF

High Class Registered Hereford Cattle. Herd headed by Beau Darling, 135569, a son of Beau Brummell, assisted by Keep On 1st, 80907, by the Imported Keep On. Cows are of the choicest breeding, combining the blood of Anxieties 4th, Lord Wilton, The Graveyard, Garfield, Beau Ideal, Wild Tom, Java, etc.

A Few Choice Bulls for Sale at Reasonable Prices.

Farm four miles west of town.

KINSLEY, KANSAS.

R. D. HEATH & SONS

CARRY THE MOST

COMPLETE STOCK OF LUMBER

ever carried in Kinsley and at LOWEST PRICES. THE BEST ALWAYS.

Lowest Prices and Best Place in Kinsley TO TRADE!

M. SCHNATTERLY'S MERCANTILE HOUSE

NORTH SIDE OF RAILROAD.

Big Stock of New Goods for the Spring Trade: Groceries, Hardware, Gasoline Stoves, Paints, Oils, Tinware, Queensware, Glassware, Shoes, Notions, etc. Fresh Eggs Wanted. All kinds of Fresh Vegetables and Fruits received daily. Come see us.

Drugs, Wall Paper, Etc.

A full line of Drugs, Wall Paper, Oils, Paints, School Supplies, Cigars and Tobaccos constantly on hand. Prescriptions carefully compounded, only the best drugs being used. If you want to buy a birthday or wedding present, you will do well to call on us.

DETAR DRUG COMPANY